THE CLOSE OF THE YEAR.

Two Murders in Different Parts of Henderson Marked the Event.

Henderson, Ky., Jan. 1.--Two murders, similar in the way in which they were committed, occurring hours apart and in opposite sections of the city, marked the close of the year in the criminal annals of this city. Axes were the weapons used in each case, one being fatal almost instantly and the other resulting in the death of the victim after hours of agony. At an early hour Sunday morning Charles Willis, colored, entered the house of Lou Bailey, also colored. They quarreled.
Willis picked up an ax which was lying in a corner of the room and wielding it with both hands struck the woman a terrible blow on her head. She died at night. In the afternoon, in the other end of the city, Levi Childs, colored, was killed by Isaac Gibson, white, aged 17, the boy using the ax in the same manner as Willis used his. Gibson was under the influence of liquor at the time. According to his story Childs entered his yard and after a few words advanced on him with a knife. He grabbed an ax and with a fearful blow broke the daikney's skull, death being instantaneous.

MURDERED IN HIS SLEEP.

Richard Washington, a Hostler, Found with his Head Split Open.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 1.--Murdered in his sleep, Richard Washington, a hostler, at the Mansfield stock farm, was found by the police with his head split open with an ax. His wife is under arrest charged with the crime.
The police hurried to Mansfield place early in the morning in response to a telephone message from Washington's wife saying her husband had been killed. A bloody ax and a dress belonging to the Washington woman, stained with blood and having the appearance of having been washed, were found concealed. She alleges that two white men entered the house, each having a club, and beat Washington into insensibility. The detectives have quizzed her relentlessly all day, but she adheres to her story of the killing.
J. J. Curtis, master of Mansfield place, has moved and the couple occupied the basement of the house.

A. S. WINTON RETIRES.

He Quits From the Head of the First National Bank of Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 1.--The clearances of the national banks of this city for 1905 are the largest in the history of the city. The total clearings for the year were $32,240,675.01, while the total for 1904 was $29,881,418.88. A. S.
Winston, for many years president of the First national bank, and one of the best-known business men in Central Kentucky, has tendered his resignation, to take effect the first day of the new year. A meeting of the board of directors will be held the coming week to act on the resignation, and, while no steps have been taken to appoint a successor, it is likely that W.
W. Esch, one of the directors, will be tendered the position. Mr. Winston's resignation is due to a desire on his part to retire from active business.

Engine Hostler Crushed to Death.
Lexington, Ky., Jan. 1.--Forgetting to throw a switch caused Sam Cowan, 50, an engine hostler, to be killed in the Q. & C. railway yards. Signaling for the engine to back to enter the track assigned, he mounted the real step. When the switch was reached the engine swung into a train of empty cars, and Cowan was crushed to death.

The Gift Turned Down.

istrates voted to give Judge Henry C. refused the tempting offer, and will retire from politics for good and return to his blue grass farm.

tial congregations in the city.

THE LEGISLATIVE CAUCUSES.

Apparently the Supporters of Judge Paynter Dominated the Situation.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 2.--When adjournment was reached in the democratic house and senate caucuses of the Kentucky legislature Monday night, the supporters of Judge Thomas H. Paynter, who aspires to succeed J.
C. S. Blackburn as United States senator, apparently dominated the situation. In the house caucuses a Paynter man was elected chairman of the caucus and a Paynter man was nominated for speaker by a vote of 29 to 30. In the senate caucuses the Paynter candidates for chairman and president pro tem were nominated by a vote of 13 to 13. Adding the votes polled for Paynter candidates in the two branches gives a total of 57, or four votes more than enough to nominate Judge Paynter. If he receives a vote equal to that polled by the men he pursues, his supporters also point with jubilation to the tactical advantage they have gained in organizing the two houses. Set over against these claims are the flat assertions of the opposing candidates, that a number of legislators who voted for Paynter's candidates will not vote for Judge Paynter for senator in joint caucuses.
With these "cross votes" they also include six members who did not vote on the races for speaker and president pro tem. The Paynter managers, however, say that their candidate also will receive the votes of several cross overs. Neither side showed any sign of giving ground after the caucuses, the Paynter managers claiming his nomination in joint caucuses on the first ballot, while the Haldeman and Blackburn forces, which combined in an attempt to organize the two houses steadfastly asserted that there would be a deadlock. The democratic joint caucuses on United States senator will be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.
The republicans, who are in a hopeless minority, will also hold their caucuses Tuesday. In the caucuses of democratic senators Henry George, an adherent of Judge Paynter, was chosen chairman by a vote of 18 to 13. The selection of a democratic nominee for president pro tem of the senate also resulted in the choice of a Paynter supporter, D. W. Hickman.

THE WOODLAWN FARM.

E. T. Barnett, a Wealthy Mine Owner of Alaska, Purchases It.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 2.--E. T. Barnett, millionaire mine owner of Fairbanks, Alaska, purchased the noted Woodlawn farm from the heirs of the late W. B. McCauley for $62,000. The farm contains 300 acres, and will be operated by Barnett as a breeding establishment for trotters. Barnett notifies a half dozen choice brood mares and he will gather together a selection of fine stallions and stallions and eight operations. The list of March Woodlawn farm was formerly owned by the best known breeding establishment in the state, being the home of the noted stallions Artillery and Vento.

Mader was busy administering the oath of office to the recently elected officials who assumed their duties at the beginning of the new year. All or aided or abetted one for the past five years.

ary 1, 1905, while during the last 12 months 1,345 prisoners were committed. At the close of the year he had 23 prisoners in charge.

Saved By a Mouth Organ.

Newport, Ky., Jan. 2.--George Riddle, of Dayton, carried a gun which he thought was not loaded. He held it against his breast and snapped the trigger. It exploded, but a mouth organ in his pocket deflected the bullet and his life was saved.

Street Railway Strike Ends.

of the strikers will be taken back, the result being claimed as a complete victory for the company.

Boy Accidentally Drowned.

Newport, Ky., Jan. 2.--Martin Ham-

WHITE FLAGS

Bear Mute Witness to End of the December Uprising in Moscow.

TROOPS OCCUPY PRESNA DISTRICT

Vast Majority of Members of the "Fighting Legions" Surrendered or Threw Away Arms.

The Last of the Revolutionaries, the Guard of the Committee, Surrendered Sunday Morning to the Government Troops.

Moscow, Jan. 1.—White flags flying from a dozen factories in the tenement houses of Presna district where the revolutionaries made their last stand now bear mute witness to the end of the "December uprising in Moscow." The entire district is now occupied by troops.

During the night the vast majority of the members of the "Fighting Legions" either surrendered or, after throwing away their arms, endeavored to escape in the guise of peaceful citizens. Only the members who acted as a guard to the revolutionary committee of this handful Sunday morning furnished the last act of the sanguinary drama.

The staging of this last act was admirable—a snow-covered landscape, the small black residence with a tiny red flag fluttering from its gable, the end of Corbatoff bridge, black with the guns of the artillery, and a thin encircling line of the Semenovskiy regiment of the guard, broken only directly in the line of fire. Suddenly there was a flash of red fire from the mouth of one of the guns and a solid shot plowed through the walls of the house. A splintering shot replied from a window. The cannon spoke again and again until a dozen shots had been fired.

It looked like murder to the spectators on a hill and so evidently thought the officer in command of the battery, which ceased fire. A reserve company of the Semenovskiy regiment then advanced and fired volleys at the upper windows. At the third volley a white handkerchief attached to a bayonet was pushed through a shattered pane. It waved frantically and all was over. The little garrison of 30 marched out and laid down their arms, a strange collection of rifles and repeating shot-guns. All had revolvers.

Strange to say not one of the men had even been wounded, and when they found that they would not be immediately executed they appeared to be rather relieved that the end of the struggle had come. They gathered around the soldiers' bivouac, stretched their hands eagerly over the cheerful fires, and begged cigarettes from the guards.

The number of prisoners is being constantly augmented, most of the new arrivals being arrested at the bridges or at other points of egress in the Presna district, which is crowded with refugees.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 1.—The report that Com. White is looked for retirement in a few days is again being persistently circulated. It is reported that M. D. Petrov, minister of the interior, will be elevated to the premiership.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—It is learned from a high source that Premier White is again strongly urging the emperor to immediately promulgate a moderate constitution for the people's purpose of reassuring the liberals that the present war against the "Reds" does not mean reactionary backing the attempt which undoubtedly will be made when the national assembly convenes to transform that body into a constituent assembly. Moreover the plan has other heavy backing and the emperor is showing an inclination to accept it. The premier is understood to have informed his majesty that such an act would be a master stroke at the present juncture and might rally the whole body of conservative and liberal opinion to the side of the government.

KIND WORDS

From The Newspapers Everywhere

About Our Souvenir Edition

The newspapers generally have been speaking in very complimentary terms about our Special Souvenir Edition, which is duly appreciated. We quote a few of these issues, as follows:

Danville News—"The Mt. Vernon Signal last week issued from its press rooms one of the handsomest and most artistic souvenir editions recently published in Kentucky. Editor Edgar Albright is making a great success in the journalistic field and his numerous Danville friends join in congratulating him upon his successful efforts. He was formerly a student in Centre College. He was assisted in the undertaking by Mr. Joe F. Waters, who edited a special edition for the Harrodsburg Herald some months ago. The editors of that paper unite with us in declaring Waters a wonder as a special edition editor."

Interior Journal—"After mention in several papers has been issued our Souvenir Editions, the Standard Interior Journal said: 'But the one issued by the Mt. Vernon Signal eclipsed them all, is a thing of beauty and a joy forever.'"

Quotations from a list of newspapers will be printed next week.

LOCAL

E. M. Denny, Verona, Mo. is dead.

Spiro is the name of a new post-office to be established at W. A. Owens' store, between Brodhead and Quail.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—A farm of 114 acres, known as the Arch Albright farm, on the Bee Lick road. From 50 to 60 acres bottom corn land. For further information call on or address F. L. Warren, Level Green, Ky. Dec. 22 '31

STRAY SHEEP.—At J. N. Griffin's, 1 1/2 miles south of Pine Hill, two ewes and buck, all white. Came to my place in October. The owner can get them by proving property and paying charges. J. N. Griffin.

Rev. A. J. Pike, Dock Pennington, M. F. Smith, Bogie Phillips and Judge Jacob Sambrook compose the Board of Supervisors of tax, which is in session this week. If we are correctly informed as to the number of raises made, Rockcastle will have more taxes than ever before.

The G. M. Ballard property on Main street changed hands twice in two days. A. B. Furnish bought it from Mr. Ballard and then sold it to W. B. Smith. We understand that Mr. Smith will probably move the post-office and occupy a portion of the room in which Mr. S. C. Franklin is located.

Mrs. J. S. Reppert, after an illness of several weeks, died Thursday. She was a sufferer of heart trouble.

The annual election of officers of the Mt. Vernon was held Tuesday. The only change made was the election of Dr. Percy Bant as director, to take the place of J. B. Houk.

Mr. Adam Bryant, one of the county's most substantial citizens, died after a few hours' illness Friday of heart trouble. He was buried Sunday in the family burying ground near the home of his brother, David Bryant.

NOTICE.

This is to notify all who know themselves indebted to me to please call and settle their accounts. If you haven't got the money come and give me your note. Short settlements make long friends, and of course we want to be friends and do business together in the future as we have in the past.

Respectfully,
IONAS MCKENZIE

Edward Spicy, aged 17, of Cincinnati, a son of Mr. John Spicy, President of the Kentucky Free Stone Co., was spending last week at Langford Station hunting. On Saturday, while attempting to cross a gulch his gun was accidentally discharged, the load entering his left lung, from the effects of which he died Saturday night. His remains were taken to Cincinnati for burial.

I have just received the finest lot of dry goods, notions and furnishings goods that ever was in a first-class county store and are full up to the brim with all kinds of goods fresh and up to date. Handle all kinds of sewing machine supplies, needles, shuttles, oil, bands, etc.; also sewing machines from $15 to $50. Come to Owens' store or write for sewing machines and supplies. Address W. M. Owens, Burr, Ky.

The new county officials were inducted into their new offices Monday and after the few necessary preliminaries, actively began the performance of their duties. The following are the officers: Judge, L. W. Bethune; County Attorney, S. D. Lewis; County Clerk, M. C. Miller; Sheriff, R. L. McFerrin; Superintendent of Schools, G. M. Ballard; and Jailor, L. L. Jarrett. Mr. Jarrett being in New Mexico for his health, the office is in charge of his brother, Owen Jarrett.

WILLIAMSBURG.

The town is full of students again. Both schools are full. Williamsburg has about two miles of smooth stone sidewalks. Mr. George Parker after spending the holidays with his family here, returned to his studies in a medical college in Louisville. Misses Sanford, Knox and Fuller, of the Highland College of this place, spent the holidays in Atlanta, Tallapoosa and New Orleans. Mr. G. A. Deuham, who was elected Mayor of Williamsburg, last November by a majority of one vote, took the oath of office Monday evening, and after serving forty five minutes he tendered his resignation, on the ground that his majority at the election was not sufficient to warrant him in believing that he was the choice of the majority of all the people. I hope his conscientious scruples will become epidemic. J. W. Siler, cashier of the Bank of Williamsburg, was then elected Mayor, to fill the vacancy until next election. The holiday number of The Mt. Vernon Signal is "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." On receiving it I could scarcely believe my eyes. I was glad to see the names and addresses of old friends whom I had lost sight of. When reading these names I can see "Jim" Maret scratching his head in a new place every time he wrote down a new name.

CONWAY

Last week's Signal reminded us of a Weekly Courier Journal. Come on Bro. Landrum with your double-deck Central Record, don't let our little mountain paper down you. The work on the spoke mill here is being rushed now and Mr. John B. Smith, of Ohio, who is superintending it, hopes to be ready for business in ten days—Christmas passed off nicely here except a few drizzles and some loud words. Mr. Taz Huff and family have moved to Snyder. Mr. J. W. Rupard was in Richmond this week on business. Mr. J. H. Sigmon has moved to his farm he recently bought of Frank Jones in Scaffold Cane.

Charley and George Harden have moved here from Ford to engage in work at the spoke mill. We are glad to learn that our friend T. J. Handy will move back from Texas about Feb. 1. Mr. John P. Smith, who is engaged in the spoke business here, moved his family here from Ohio and will occupy the Harvey Chenault property.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Woodstock Lodge No. 639, F. & A. M., Woodstock, Ky.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, the Supreme Architect, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst, on November the 12th, 1905, to the Grand Lodge on High, our late lamented and highly esteemed brother, Jasper N. Brown, who in his noble character of Masonic manhood exhibited his affectionate regard, unselfish love for his brothers and friends, his zeal in our labors, his unremitting energy for the promotion of all good and charity, which won for him our veneration, affection and regard. Our departed brother had been a consistent member of the Christian church, a Mason for more than 18 years and Master of our lodge for six years. The memory of his many deeds of kindness shall flourish as a sprig of acacia in the hearts of all who knew him. Therefore be it Resolved: First, That in the death of our brother, Jasper N. Brown, our lodge has lost a worthy and faithful brother, the community one of its best citizens, the wife a loving husband, and his children a kind and devoted father.

Second: That this lodge extend to the bereaved family its deepest sympathy in this their darkest hour of irreparable loss, and may God ever guide, guard and protect them.

Third: That as a tribute to his memory we wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days; a page be set a part in the record book of this lodge, as a memorial, and that these resolutions be recorded thereon, that a copy be sent to the family, and that they be published in the Masonic Home Journal, The Somerset Journal and The Mt. Vernon Signal.

H. H. Beatty, J. T. Brown, Houston Osborn Com.

LEVEL GREEN

Level Green is suffering from severe gripe and colds, which seem to be an epidemic. J. P. Mullins is improving slowly. Our little town is soon to have a new spoke factory under the management of H. C. Broughton. W. J. Brown and Miss Julia Cummins, of Quail, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Wednesday at the home of the bride. The groom is the second son of Wm. H. Brown and a prosperous young farmer. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mrs. Mary Cummins. Two of our citizens have gone to Hyden, Les lie county, to enter college. While we have as good an institution of learning as the Brown Memorial School at our own county seat it would help to upbuild our county and furnish better teachers, as well as greatly benefit the morals of our young men, to patronize home institutions. Just as long as parents send their sons and daughters to distant schools and colleges, instead of helping to raise the standard of our own schools, so long will our schools be secondary institutions of learning. The Public School of this place will close the 1st of February. Wade Brown is an extensive dealer in the handle business here. Mose Broughton, of Ottawa, has moved in with his father and co-operate with him in the goods business. There were services Sunday at the Chapel conducted by Bro. Forbes. Jos. B. Brown, from the K. U. Bible College, Lexington, came in Saturday for a two days vacation and returned Monday. Coleman Broughton is suffering from a severe case of the disease familiarly known as the "Lawrence."

MARETBURG.

Christmas passed very quietly here. Mr. M. Hartz remains about the same. Mrs. Judith Chestnut is visiting her son I. J. McCall. Miss Montie Martin of Berea College, accompanied by Miss Maud Scrivner, spent Xmas at home. Miss Grace McCall after a visit with relatives at Stanford, is at home. Mrs. J. J. McCall is at Hazel Patch with her husband. Miss Montie Martin gave a social in honor of her guests, Misses Mand Scrivner and Gertrude Martin. Miss Eva Durman entertained Friday night and Miss Alice McCall Saturday night in honor of Miss Jewel Francisco. John Hunt spent a few days at Hazel Patch. Mrs. Den McClure will arrive today from Paris to visit her mother, Mrs. Reynolds. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Owens have returned from a visit their daughter at Pineville. D. Jay Hunt made a flying trip to Corbin Sunday. Alf. Griffin and Hugh Cress returned home Sunday after a visit to Roscoe Griffin. Mrs. Elmer Houk has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jno. Moore at Berea. Misses Maud Scrivner and Montie Martin have returned to Berea much to the regret of the young folks.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as
